

BURY LADIES NETBALL LEAGUE

The Code of Conduct state the values and standards expected at all time. In addition to these, when in our capacity as a player, coach, umpire, table official, team manager, teacher, tutor, assessor, tester, trainer, verifier, mentor or volunteer, we will also:

- Be a positive role model for netball by acting in a way that projects a positive image of our role within netball and being fair, considerate and honest with participants and officials.
- Display high standards in our language, manner, punctuality, preparation and presentation to ensure that all time spent with us by participants or colleagues is a positive experience.
- Exercise reasonable care and skill when carrying out our duties, including but not limited to keeping up to date with the latest practices and developments by taking up further education and other personal and professional development opportunities.
- Be consistent, independent and demonstrate complete impartiality through exercising reasonable care and skill to enforce the rules of the game by applying them fairly and to effect control of the game.
- As a coach, seek to inspire and motivate in accordance with an individual's abilities to enable them to play to the best of their ability and realise their potential.
- As a coach, provide athletes with planned and structured training programmes appropriate to their abilities and goals by ensuring that equal attention and opportunities are available to all, including those requiring a modified plan due to sickness or injury.
- As a tutor assessor, tester, trainer, verifier or mentor, provide candidates with the appropriate information planned and structured programmes appropriate to their needs and goals, ensuring that equal attention is applied, and to provide appropriate feedback following observation of a session.
- Be mentally and physically fit to carry out our role within netball.
- Ensure that the training and/or competition environment is safe and appropriate for the age, physical and emotional maturity and experience and ability of the athletes.
- Ensure that the following instructions and comply with all health and safety regulations that apply to the role we are undertaking.

We will endeavour to abide by this code of conduct and promote it to others. We understand that if we fail to follow the code, Bury Ladies Netball League may take action against us under the Disciplinary Regulations which may result in Sanctions including fines and suspension.
